

Privacy Policy

Information Collection and Use:

The Leading Centres of Europe are committed to the privacy of our web site visitors.

We collect personal information from visitors to this website through the use of contact forms and through emails sent to us.

The personally identifiable information collected on this website is used to fulfil requests from inquiring visitors. Leading Centres of Europe will treat the submitted information as confidential and will not sell or license the information collected on this website to others. The information might be shared amongst the 10 members of the Leading Centres of Europe for the purpose of helping the visitor obtain the information they are seeking. All contact from the Leading Centres of Europe and its members will be with the permission of the recipient.

Log Files:

The Leading Centres of Europe and its website administrator use IP addresses to administer the site, track user movement and gather geographic information for aggregate use. We do not use IP addresses to link to personally identifiable information.

Security:

The Leading Centres of Europe take reasonable precautions to protect website visitors' information. When users submit sensitive personal information via the website, we take steps to protect that information. The servers in which personally identifiable information is kept are located in an electronically and physically secure environment.

This website may contain links to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of these websites. Any links to other websites does not mean that the Leading Centres of Europe endorse or accept any responsibility for that site.

Sharing:

The Leading Centres of Europe do not share any personally identifiable information with any third-party without the visitors' permission.